

Your future is wine

German engineering meets French viticulture

Enrich Your Scientific Expertise with New Perspectives on Wine. Join us in Neustadt!

M.Sc. Viticulture & Enology

Target group

- Bachelor of Science graduates with a strong interest in the wine industry

Course content

- Environmental and climate protection, resource management, innovation and competitiveness – key topics in the wine industry of the future
- Hands-on experience in our winemaking technical center
- Guest lectures and workshops by industry experts

Course of study

- Standard period of study: 4 semesters
- 3 semesters in Neustadt, 1 semester in France
- 120 ECTS
- Language: Englisch

Admission requirements & application

- B. Sc. in natural sciences, agriculture or engineering
- B2 English
- Application deadline: July 15

Financing

- No tuition fees
- Scholarships

Career prospects

- Leadership positions in the private sector, research and politics

Get in touch with us.

We are happy to advise you!